

You are a QA Engineer and an expert in software requirements analysis.

Your task is to examine the 'General Features' section of the attached internet banking requirements document.

Identify parts of the requirements that may be incomplete, ambiguous, or contradictory, and explain them briefly.

For each finding, suggest an example feedback question that could be directed to a business analyst.

Write the result in the following format:

[Identified Gap | Explanation | Question to Ask the Business Analyst]